OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

A correspondent in to-day's paper presents, briefly and cogently, his objections to the abolition of Capital Punishment. We have, on various occasions, expressed our own views in the matter, which are very decidedly opposed to the contemplated change in our Criminal law. The question is again before the Legislature of this State, not upon petitions from the People, but on the motion of an individual member, doubtless sincere, but not necessarily right in his views. We do not believe that there is any present call upon the Legislature to waste time in the discussion of this question. We do not believe that public sentiment in this State demands, or desires any such change in the law. We do not believe that the administration of Justice would be made more certain, or life, property and personal rights rendered more secure, by lessening the penalty in capital convictions.

A new argument, in favor of abolishing the death penalty, is sought to be derived from the acquittal of the murderer, Ratcliffe. It is pretended, perhaps believed, that if the Law had prescribed a different punishment, anything short of death, for his crime, the Jury would have brought in a verdict of Guilty. This argument presumes that the Jurors in question were all fools; since they had nothing to do with the penalty of the crime, but were bound, by their oaths and obligations as Jurymen, to look simply at the evidence and the law and find a verdict accordingly. Although they failed signally and shamefully failed, to do their duty, we are unwilling to believe that they knowingly violated their oaths; and hence attach no force to this new-fangled reasoning. As to the old arguments, pro and con, it is unnecessary to allude to them here. Indeed, we have referred to the question, not with any view or thought of discussing it, but simply to express the hope that since the Legislature have so many bills before them which the People want, they will not consume time in talking about a measure which the People do not want.

INDIRECTION.—It is no violation of courtesy to say that we regard the proposal to do the Printing specified in the Resolution of the Common Council gratis as a mere ruse to obtain by an oblique proceeding what could not be got by direct means. And the proof of it is, that those who now favor the acceptance of the Sentinel's bid, declared, at the first, that such bids should not be entertained. We made our bid on the faith of such declarations.—Free Democrat.

No such "declarations" were made in our hearing, as to our knowledge. Of course, if they had been, we should not have made a bid which the Council had pre-determined to rule out. It may be "no violation of courtesy" to speak of our proposal as "a mere ruse," but it is a violation of the truth. Our bid was made in good faith, upon the strength of the Council's resolution inviting proposals, and, if accepted, will be fulfilled to the letter.

The Free Dem. continues:

We shall see if this game succeeds, and if four members of the Board, with the Mayor's help, can control thirteen. And that too, by means of a sham bid, with the experience of last year before them.

This onslaught upon the Mayor and "four members of the Board" is alike unjust and unfounded, and the charge that our bid, either last year, or this, was a "sham" one, is false.

We yesterday expressed the hope that the Free Democrat had inadvertently misrepresented us in this matter. It seems, however, that we judged it too charitably, and that it designed to bear false witness against us; for it repeats both of its Monday's misstatements with "a few more of the same sort." Under such circumstances, it would be idle to appeal further to its sense of justice, or its love of truth. The exigencies of the occasion compel it to forget or for-go both.

Board of Public Works.

Our Madison correspondent writes that both parties held caucuses, on Saturday evening, to select their candidates for officers of the Board of Public Works. The whigs nominated Gen. W. R. BLAKE, of Dodge Co., WM. RICHARDSON, of Grant, and PETER H. PRAMP, of Marquette, for Commissioners; COLTS BASHFORD, of Winebago, for Register, and DANIEL R. SHALER, of Marquette, for Receiver. This is a strong and popular ticket, and the Whigs hope to carry a portion of it, at least.

The Locos nominated CALEB CROSWELL, THOS J. MOORMAN, and A. J. PROUDFIT, as Commissioners, and renominated MESSRS. HENNING and MERCOCK, for Register and Receiver. We do not hear of any separate nominations by the Free Soilers.

THE ADMINISTRATION ORGAN IN THIS CITY.—We observe that the Journal has been selected by the National Administration to publish the laws—thus displacing the Sentinel. Just as it turns, the Sentinel pulls the Administration most vigorously. It assailed the Commercial most furiously for its attacks, and, in truth, it assumed to be the special champion, in this State, of the Administration. It now finds that its investment did not return. They quickly chose the Journal as the official paper. Recently the Sentinel has dropped the Administration like a hot potato. It is now as cold as an icicle, &c. &c. —Wisconsin.

Here are a dozen lies in as many lines—not an unusual proportion, by the way, for PECKNIFF, who vaunts his "rigid adherence to his word in every relation of life." The Sentinel's course and language towards the National Administration now is precisely what it was last fall; neither "cold as an icicle," nor "most vigorous" in its puffs. We never assumed to be the "special champion" of the Administration, and had been "displaced," as the Wisconsin terms it, months before we "puffed" it so "vigorously." Thus the circumstance relied upon by PECKSNIFF to sustain his lie, turns out, unfortunately, to be fabricated like the charge itself.

"HERE SHE GOES AND THERE SHE GOES."—The Wisconsin, which was zealous for intervention a short while since, is now on t'other tack, and publishes with great gusto the following:—

A SHARP HIT.—The witty editor of the "Carpet Bag" touches the marrow of intervention in this little squib. The following toast, it says, was given by its Presidential candidate at the late celebration of the Ancient and Honorable:—

"The Massachusetts Volunteer Militia—May their motto be, as it has ever been—eternal vigilance but no fighting."

Our friends of the Sentinel will begin to learn that this general pulling of men in office, even when it hates them, only degrades the profession, and at the same time its instruments frequently turn out nulla bona.—Wisconsin.

In this matter the Wisconsin speaks from experience and is entitled to respectful hearing.—Like the Scotchman, it is competent to pronounce "Honesty the best policy" because it has "tried both."

NEWS BY THE ASIA.—The Asia, arrived at New York on the 12th, brings Liverpool dates to the 28th ult. The markets for breadstuffs and Cotton are fair, while in Provisions there has been a marked advance.

The Earl of DERBY's opening remarks in Parliament indicate the new Ministry's views on the subject of the Tariff.

France, though quiet on the surface, holds that within her borders which must have vent in wars abroad, or revolutions at home. If LOUIS NAPOLEON can maintain his hold upon despotic power, we may look for the former alternative, and for the latter if this "magni nominis umbra" shall fall.

THEATRICALS.—The Chicago Tribune says that McVICKER, an old favorite in Milwaukee, is playing a very successful engagement in Mr. Rice's Theatre, drawing full houses and delighting his audiences with his delineations of Yankee characters. The Tribune notifies SIDEBE, who is still starring it in London, with unbounded applause, to be "looking to his laurels."

Mrs. Torrey's Concert.

The complimentary Concert to Mrs. TORREY on Monday evening, attracted a large and brilliant auditory, numbering some 700, to Gardiner's Hall; the Fincinen mustering in force and making a hand-some show in their various uniforms. Tho' successful in this respect, the Concert, as a whole, fell short of public expectation; a number of causes operating unfavourably upon the performances of the Troupe. One of these was, the nervousness inseparable from a "first appearance"; another, the faulty construction, for musical purposes, of the stage, the singers needing to stand farther out than the platform allows, to be heard to full advantage; still another and perhaps the chief cause, was the lack of sufficient study and practice, on the part of the Troupe. All these difficulties, which stood in the way of complete success at the first trial, can and no doubt will, be removed by time; and with their removal, Mrs. Torrey and her Troupe may confidently promise them-elves much more satisfactory results than attended their efforts on Monday.

The Programme embraced several popular pieces. Mrs TORREY's own part consisted of a Cavatina from Ernani, and the sweet and simple ballad, "Sleep, my Child." The first is a most difficult piece, and hardly calculated to show Mr. TORREY's artistic powers to advantage. The second is exactly adapted to her voice and style, and was charmingly rendered. The Troupe, consisting of Mr. & Mrs. Torrey, Mrs. Cross, Mr. Keeler, and Mr. Wauchlink, sang the Pirate's Chorus, from the Enchantress, the Barcarole, and Chorus, from Masaniello, and a very pleasing quartette, "Lonely have I watched the fading day." Of the three we preferred the last, for the music being simpler than that of the others, the performance suffered less from the want of adequate rehearsals. There are some very sweet voices in the Troupe—indeed they are all good singers—and with practice they cannot fail to improve rapidly and to produce the most pleasing effect.

Mr. LUCAN SEAVER, who had kindly volunteered his services in aid of the Concert, was set down for "John Anderson, my Jo." He sang this so well that the audience insisted upon having it again, and not yet content, called him out, during the second part, for a song not announced in the bills, "the Widow Machree." This too, Mr. SEAVER, with great good nature sang twice, in obedience to the somewhat uproarious applause and encores of the audience.

The gems of the Concert, and they were gems of the first water, were the Solos on the Violin, by Mr. SCHIRMACHER, accompanied on the the Piano Forte by Mr. WAMPLING. We do not remember ever to have heard "the souvenirs de Bellini" played more to our satisfaction. Mr SCHIRMACHER's tone is full and rich; his style classical, and devoid of all claptrap; his taste and ear unimpeachable and his bowing firm, free and graceful. We think him one of the very best Violinists we have ever heard; second only to Vieuxtemps, Ole Bull and Artot. Mr. WAMPLING's accompaniment was just what it should be, and set off to advantage the Violin performance of Mr. SCHIRMACHER. They were both very warmly and deservedly applauded.

The Concert closed with a Fireman's Song and Chorus, written by Mr. TORREY and set to music by Mr. WAMPLING, which, touching upon a popular theme, called out hearty plaudits from the audience. At the termination of the performances, Mr. TORREY, in obedience to loud calls, came forward and, for Mr. TORREY and her Troupe, briefly expressed his thanks for the public favor and patronage. As soon as the roads become passable the Troupe propose to visit Madison, Watertown, Janesville, Racine, and other principal Cities and Towns, in this and adjoining States. We take great pleasure in commending them to the civilities and good opinions of our brethren of the press in the several localities which they may visit.

Firemen's Festival.

The Firemen had their own fun, Monday evening. The Annual election of Chief Engineer, Assistants and Fire Wardens, was fixed for that evening, and by the hour appointed the new Market Hall was thronged with the members of the different Companies, belonging to the Department. The result of the election was announced to our readers yesterday morning. The choice of Officers was made with great unanimity and gave general satisfaction. The business of the evening over, the Firemen marched, in a body, to Gardiner's Hall, to attend the Complimentary Concert given by them to Mrs. TORREY, and afterwards sat down to an abundant and very palatable collation in Goll's Refreshment Saloons, provided by the Chief Engineer and Assistants.—His Honor, the Mayor, the representatives of the City Press, and other gentlemen, were among the guests of the occasion.

After the substantials had been discussed, the Mayor, Col. CROCKER, was loudly called for, and being introduced to the Department by the Chief Engineer, was received with three rousing cheers. He responded to the compliment in a very neat and brief address, praising our Firemen for their zeal, efficiency, and uniform good conduct, and promising, as the Chief Executive Officer of the city, to take care of their rights and interests. Ald. BROWN, of the Third Ward, Chairman of the Committee on the Fire Department, was also called out, and made an appropriate and effective little speech. The Chief Engineer was next summoned to the stand and most heartily cheered, which he acknowledged in a suitable address. Next the Assistant Engineers, and the Foremen of the several Companies were, in turn, forcibly lifted upon the tables and required to say, or sing something.

Mr. BOOTH, as a representative of the City press, was also "knocked down" for a speech, and then the companies, in succession, were called upon for a song. These various exercises were kept up with great spirit, and infinite good humor till near midnight, when the Chief Engineer thundered thro' his trumpet the order to "take up," which the Firemen obeyed literally by taking him up and toting him on a plank, resting on a dozen shoulders, to his quarters at the U. S. Hotel. Here, after giving three cheers for the Chief Engineer and three more for the Assistants, and singing a parting song, the crowd dispersed and the Fireman's festival was over.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

The Anniversary of Ireland's Patron Saint will be duly commemorated in our City to-day by the warm-hearted Sons of Erin, and their numerous friends. Besides the customary religious exercises, there will be a military display and procession in the morning and a Festival at Gardiner's Hall in the evening.

At 9 o'clock this morning the "City Guards" will be formally presented with a new and handsome Flag, by Mayor CROCKER. The ceremony will take place at the Hall in THE ATE's new Block on East Water Street. The Guards, we are glad to learn, are in a flourishing condition, Gov. FARWELL having promptly and kindly replaced the muskets and accoutrements, destroyed by the fire in Johnson's Block.

In the evening, the Hibernian Mutual Benefit Society hold their fourth Anniversary Festival at Gardiner's Hall. They intend to have, emphatically, a "good time." Gorr will serve up the supper in his Refreshment Saloon at 8 o'clock precisely, and after this has been discussed, HESS and his spirit-stirring band will "start the Ball" in the Hall above. Carriages will be ready, from and after 6 o'clock, to call for such guests as may wish it. For further particulars, see advertisement.

COL. JAMES CLYMAN.—A letter from this veteran Pioneer, dated at Bodega, California, on the 8th of January last, states that he is in good health and tho' he has not realized any of the golden dreams, of which that land is the fruitful parent, he writes in excellent spirits and continues to hope for the "good time coming."

INJURY TO THE DAM.—The breach in the dam, above the Water-Power, is more serious than was at first reported and was widened by the flood during Monday night. The water is all out of the race and the Mills consequently "stopped" from working. It may take several weeks to repair damages so as to fill the race and start the Mills again.

For the Sentinel.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

The Free Democrat is again harping on one of its favorite strings, and urging upon the Legislature the necessity of abolishing Capital Punishment. It expresses the belief that executions have a demoralizing and degrading influence on the people; tending to cultivate a disregard for the sacredness of human life—in short it makes out (very clearly to its own satisfaction, no doubt) that the terrible position, which Milwaukee now holds, is because of this law, which saith "Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man, shall his blood be shed"—and the "spirit of an enlightened humanity," not believing it, convictions are difficult to be made, &c., &c.

The spirit of humanity (without the modern enlightenment, prated of so eloquently, by Quasi-Philanthropists and un-reformed reformers) would give other reasons for the difficulty found in having justice done.

The preachers of this maudlin sympathy for criminals—these men who wish to have virtue much cheaper than the price which God asks for it, have succeeded so far that they have confused all ideas of right and wrong, in the minds of weak men. They have succeeded so far that they themselves, and their deluded echoes, do really now believe, that the life of a Wolf is more sacred than the lives of the whole peaceable flock. They really now feel "bound to presume that jurymen act from the dictates of conscience, and err on the side of humanity (!) and mercy."(!) So much for confusion!

Without feeling bound to presume whether jurymen have consciences, or whether they act from the dictates of their stomachs, or the color of their livers; this much I will presume, that whoever loves and reveres what is God-like, will hate what is Devil-like; the one being the exact index of the other. There is no stick with only one end.

The good man, who spends himself for the benefit of humanity, is accompanied by "honor, love, and obedience, troops of friends." In a community of men, all the care and skill which love can dictate is used to keep his life. The bad man, on the other hand, who has done the blackest deed of which he is capable—who has filled the whole city with horror, hatred and fear, his fate among men is ignominy and death. In a community of cowards, of milk and water philanthrophists, it is the reverse of all this—your "enlightened humanity" then steps in with its confusions of right and wrong, with its "sacredness of human life," with its pity for an embodiment of Hell, who never, perhaps, felt anything more sacred than the gratification of his own miserable appetite—with its very tender heart for the Villain, saying, "Ah! poor unfortunate man! society made virtue too hard a task for him; and see! my phrenological disciples—the prisoner has had a very bad organization bequeathed to him—how could he help it?"

Yes! how could he help it? That is not the question with us. Made by the same Power, the snake glides thro' the leaves to the poor ground bird—the gaunt wolf shakes his thirst in the panting heart of the timid deer—made by the same power, warmed and watered by the same sun and dew, the poison weed springs up beside the lily—but not for our love and admiration; mark that!

During battle, the soldier who deserts is instantly shot; half an ounce of lead, just then in the press of business, being much more expeditious and efficient than escorts of men—Pit-on-walls, and lectures outside against the law by the "enlightened humanity." This life of ours is also a battle; a fight against the powers of darkness, within and without us; a murderer is a deserter towards the opposite camp; whether he ever reaches there entirely, will depend on the earnestness of those who fight for the reign of Truth and and Justice, instead of the reign of individual bowie-knife-defence, confusion, and terror!

PORTE CRAYON.

A DEEP WELL.—The St. Louis Intelligencer gives the following account of a very deep Artesian Well, which Mr. BELCHER of that City, is now engaged in boring. He has already penetrated to the depth of 1300 feet, a quarter of a mile, and means to go 600 deeper:

THE ARTESIAN WELL.—Mr. Belcher is still progressing with the Artesian Well on his premises, with every reasonable prospect of ultimately obtaining an abundant supply of pure water for the use of his extensive establishment.

He has already attained a depth of 1,275 feet below the surface, or 745 feet below the level of the sea. The diameter of the bore is the depth of 457 feet is 8 inches; from thence down 3 inches. It is his intention to cease boring about the first of March, and to widen the well from the surface to the depth of about one hundred feet, to a diameter of 16 inches, which will afford a supply of water for the coming season's business. Next fall the boring will be resumed, and the work vigorously prosecuted to completion.

The different formations of the earth have been carefully noted from the commencement, and are found to consist of limestone, sandstone, shells or clay slate, felspar, a kind of chrystalized clay, red marl, bituminous marl, &c., principally, however, of the first two named.

The first appearance of carbonated acid gas, was at the depth of 440 feet. Six hundred feet below the surface a saline property in the water was first discovered, which continues to increase up to the present time. The water in the well now stands about 13 feet above the level of the sea, or near 500 below the surface. The boring is progressing through a limestone formation of considerable thickness, after which, from the character of the formations just above, it is thought the water will lose its saline property, and once more become fresh. It is the intention of Mr. Belcher to proceed to the depth of fifteen or eighteen hundred feet, if his object is not fully attained before that time.

APPORTIONMENT OF THE SCHOOL FUND.—The Madison Argus contains the apportionment of the School Monies for this year. The whole amount distributed among the different counties is $25,-701, there being $6,514 yet due from borrowers of the School Fund. Milwaukee's share of the amount distributed is $4972,80.

☞ The Wisconsin of last evening indulges in a "favorable allusion" to the "Sentinel's firm of Quirk Gammon and Snap." We cannot return the compliment. There is not the least "snap" about the Wisconsin, and he who could be "gammoned" by it, must be green indeed. It is all "quirk."

LAKE NAVIGATION.—Our Lake is free from ice and the steamers Pacific and Sam Ward are making trips along the West Shore. They will doubtless continue to run regularly, though the schedule is not yet definitely fixed.

AMERICAN ART UNION.—Sub-cribers, or those intending to subscribe, to the American Art Union for the present year, are referred to the notices of Messrs. ARNOLD & WILSON, the honorary Secretaries for this city.

MAINE LIQUOR LAW IN MINNESOTA.—This law has passed the Assembly and Council of Minnesota, and is to be submitted to the people of the Territory for ratification on the first Monday in April.

☞ The New Orleans Picayune of the 23d ult., announces the death in that city of Col. J. B. MANY, Commanding the 3d Regt., U. S. Infantry. He was one of the Veterans of the service and had attained his 78th year.

☞ From the comments of a portion of the press, it would seem that an impression prevails that the business of legislation is not progressing with proper dispatch. The daily reports are proof positive to the contrary. While the Bank Bill has been under consideration, it has naturally attracted the main share of public attention; yet it has scarcely operated to impede the current of business. The forenoon, in the Assembly, has ordinarily witnessed about the same dispatch of business during this bank discussion, as formerly occupied the day; and the Senate has almost uniformly cleared its table daily. The fact is, a large amount of legislation is steadily going forward.—Madison Argus.

BADGERS IN CALIFORNIA.—We notice in California papers the names of several of our Badger friends figuring in public life in that State. Count Harmanby formerly of this town, and Nick Turner, of Mineral Pt., are members of the Assembly; Albert Alden of Waukesha is Clerk of the Senate; T. W. Sutherland, for some time editor of a democratic daily paper at San Francisco, is now practising law in company with John B. Weller, U. S. Senator elect. Wash. Bird is a major in the army and fighting Indians for his amusement.—Various others whom it does us good to hear from, are making their mark as well as their pile in the far off State.—Mad. Dem.

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS.

MADISON, March 12.

Bills passed.

SENATE, 10 A. M.—To incorporate La Crosse and Milwaukee R. R. Co.

Three road and ferry bills.

Authorizing Jefferson Co. to pay interest on certain orders.

Assembly bill amending Kenosha City Charter.

Assembly memorial for removal of Chippewa Indians.

ASSEMBLY, 9 A. M.

Mr. Giles introduced a bill to reduce the rate of interest to 7 per cent.

Mr. Hoyt introduced a resolution giving assent of Congress to boundaries of a new territory, its south line to be the Menomonee river to the line between towns 30 and 31, thence west to range 10, thence south to river Trempe Peau, and down that river to the Mississippi. It lies over.

A remonstrance from C. C. Washburn against a new land district, and discontinuance of the Milwaukee and Mineral Point office, was read and referred.

Senate bill to aid Gen'l Smith in compiling documentary History of Wisconsin was read in the House. It gives him access to the library and records, and places $1000 in the Governor's hands for his expenses. The documents prepared by him are to belong to the State.

Mr. Hoyt moved to take up Senate bill providing for election of State Prison Commissioners. After various motions and decisions on points of order, the chair being sustained in each case, the House refused to suspend the rules to take up the bill. A reconsideration was moved and lost for want of 2/3 vote. An appeal was taken on this question, and the chair sustained. Mr. Lewis moved to suspend the rules so as to rescind the rule requiring a 2/3 vote, lost 27 to 36.

After ordering sundry bills engrossed, House went into committee of the whole, Mr. Burnham in the chair.

Assembly, 3 P. M. The railroad bond proposition, as renewed by Mr. Cate, was before the House. It was the same as that rejected yesterday with the following additional proviso:

"That the measurer shall not receive such bonds and mortgages, at a higher rate than at one half of their nominal value."

Mr. Hoyt read a communication from some person in New York city advocating the use of Railroad bonds as banking securities.

Mr. Cate withdrew his proposition. It was instantly renewed by Mr. Giles, with a trifling alteration, and omiting the last proviso.

Mr. Shafter moved to reduce the distance to be completed to 40 miles, and it was accepted by Mr. Giles. Mr. Shafter then opposed the proposition as a whole. Messrs. Hackett, Mott and Lawrence also opposed. Messrs. Giles and Hoyt spoke in favor. The proposition was lost, as follows:—

Ayes.—Messrs. Averbeck, Beck, Briggs, Burnham, Cate, Catton, Cramond, Giles, Graham, Hasse, Hammett, Hilliard, Hoyt, Johnson, Knoell, McKee, McNaughton, Monroe, Moore, Patch, Powers, Phelps, Strong, Utley, Van Nostrand, Wiel—26.

Nays.—Messrs. Abbott, Bancroft, Barlow, Botkin, Blodgett, Burgess, Cain, Clemons, Conger, Cooper, Donaldson, Earnest, Fellows, Fyffe, Gordon, Grover, Hackett, Kinney, Lawrence, Lewis, Mason, Mead, Mott, Penk, Pierce, Ramsey, Richardson, Ricker, Root, Safford, Sholes, Skinner, Stark, Sterling, Sugden, Teay, Wood, Worthington, Shafter—39.

Adjourned.

SATURDAY, March 13.

ASSEMBLY, 9 A. M.—Prayer by Rev. Mr. Gardiner.

Petitions, &c.

By Mr. Root, from sundry citizens of Marquette Co., for re-election of Caleb Croswell. Also 2 for Maine law.

By Mr. Weil, against Maine law.

Proceedings of public meeting at Fort Winnebago in favor of Caleb Croswell, but declaring their resolutions void if he shall be found to have squandered the funds.

By Mr. Blodgett, from squatters on Menomonee lands for protection of their rights.

Bills Reported from Committees.

By Mr. Patch, authorizing a bridge across Fox River at Menasha.

By Mr. Botkin, to release former securities of State Treasurer.

By Mr. Worthington, authorizing school district in Oconomowoc to borrow money.

Bill appropriating money to U. S. officers for locating school lands, was made the special order for Thursday morning next.

Bill introduced by Mr. Teay incorporating Primitive Methodist Conference of Wisconsin.

Bill appropriating money to Rufus King & Co., passed.

Mr. Ricker moved to suspend the rules to take up and consider Senate bill providing for State Prison Commissioners. Mr. Mott moved to amend by taking up bill reported by House Select committee. Amendment accepted, and motion carried. The first bill provides for election by legislature of the officers, to serve until successors are chosen by the people; the other for appointment by the Governor until such election. House went into committee of the whole on the two bills, Mr. Averbeck in the chair. In committee, Mr. Sholes moved to lay the Senate bill on the table—lost. Mr. Van Nostrand moved to lay the Assembly bill on the table; carried, and Senate bill reported back to the House.

Mr. Mott opposed the passage of the Senate bill, as it does not provide for management of the Prison. Mr. Van Nostrand favored it, and was for the enactment of a penitentiary code in a separate bill. After further debate, a call of the House was ordered. The bill passed Ayes 36, noes 27. The question on indefinite postponement of the Assembly bill was carried 35 to 26.

Mr. Lewis called attention to the state of the plastering on the north end of the Assembly Hall, which was threatening to fall. Large masses had already fallen in the hall, owing to the shrinking of the timbers from the heat of the furnaces.

Mr. Ricker moved to reconsider the vote rejecting the railroad proposition in the Bank law.—Mr. Skinner moved to lay the motion on the table—carried.

Adjourned to 9 A. M. Monday.

Relations between France and Austria are less friendly: The French Gov't protested against increase of duties in Austria.

England: House of Lords, 27th.—The Earl of Derby gave a short programme of the principles which were to govern the new Ministry. He repudiated the Franchise measure, and also expressed preference for principles of the American tariff rather than the Free Trade system.

GREAT WOOL SALE.—At Uxbridge, Mass. on Wednesday last a great wool sale took place under the superintendence of Messrs. Clark & Hatch of this city. The catalogue comprised about 30 lots, and the amount of sales exceeded $60,000.—The whole was sold by Mr. Hatch in the short space of thirty-two minutes. The attendance of purchasers was very large, and bidding extremely brisk and spirited. Many of those present came from a great distance to attend the sale. The above must be allowed to be a good half-hour's work and does great credit to the business talent of the auctioneer.—Boston Cour.

The number of passengers carried over the roads during the year was eight millions. The largest number carried was by the Harlem Railroad Company, and amounts to 2,673,077 persons. The New York and Erie carried 688,789, Hudson River 796,936, Rochester and Syracuse 513,241 Buffalo and Rochester 322,985, Buffalo and Niagra Falls 150,792.

The New York and Erie Company has carried passengers the largest number of miles, their returns showing passengers to have been carried by them 52,215,092 miles. The Rochester and Syracuse company carried passengers 30,319,568 miles. New York and New Haven 30,323,236, Utica and Schenectady 27,462,475, Hudson River 24,421,-092, Syracuse and Utica 18,392,881, Buffalo and Rochester 18,025,153 New York and Harlem 14,-595,518, Northern 3,691,149.

The largest number carried for each mile run was 112 by the Utica and Schenectady Company. The Syracuse and Utica Company carried 109, Hudson River 106, New York and New Haven 74. Buffalo and Niagara Falls 97, Buffalo and Rochester 93, New York and Erie 72, Northern 28.

The greatest quantity of freight carried was by the New York and Erie Road, namely 250,000 tons, about two-thirds of which went west. The Albany and West Stockbridge carried 135,119 tons, Northern 109,700, Utica and Schenectady 115,750, Syracuse and Utica 86,249, Buffalo and Rochester 46,880. The largest quantity carried for each mile run was by the Syracuse and Utica road, namely 64 tons. The Northern carried 62, Watertown and Rome 55, Troy and Erie 42, Buffalo and Rochester 45, Rochester and Syracuse 44.

The total movement of freight was equivalent to carrying 75,867,747 tons one mile.

The number of casualties reported were 80 persons killed, and 17 more or less injured. Six of the Companies neglected to make any statement of casualties as required by law. They are the Albany and Schenectady, Albany and West Stockbridge, Hudson and Berkshire, New York and Harlem, New York and New Haven, and Rensselaer and Saratoga Companies. Whether any accidents to life or person have occurred on them is not known. The small amount of danger attending railway travel is strongly exhibited in the fact, that of the passengers who were in the cars and in their seats as they should have been, not one has been killed and only 7 or 8 slightly bruised during the past year.

It is estimated that the sum of twelve millions of dollars, will be expended during the current year, in the construction and equipment of Railroads within the State.—Buffalo Courier.

Leap Year Excursion.

Some of the married ladies of this village, on Wednesday last, took it into their heads to exercise some of the privileges which the year confers upon them. During the forenoon of that day, they secured the services of a small number of married men, to an excursion to Oconomowoc—each invitation coming from some other lady than the wife of the recipient, though by an understanding between the ladies, the husband of each was to be of the party. To say that these invitations were not gladly accepted, would not argue well for the good sense of the "sterner sex."

At the appointed hour, 3 P. M., the four horse sleigh of Mr. White, with seats for six couple, commenced picking up the gentlemen. Each of these was called upon at his usual place of business, conducted to the sleigh, handed in, and his seat pointed out; after which the lady, assisted by one or more of her sex, again entered the sleigh and took her seat, usually the opposite one to her partner. After receiving its complement, the sleigh started off in gallant style upon its journey, and was followed by another holding three couple. We were so fortunate as to be one of the party.

The ladies were all attention to their "partners," and spared no effort for their comfort. They adjusted cravats, drew caps over exposed ears, buttoned cloaks and overcoats, tendered muffs to hands which did not appear warm enough gloved, and led off in the conversation. It took the gentlemen some time to "get the hang" of this new order of things, but after doing so they enjoyed it well.

Minutes sped like moments, and long before any of the gentlemen seemed to wish, Oconomowoc was reached. Here the ladies helped out their "partners," led them to the drawing room, and afterwards ordered supper. In good time this was announced; the gentlemen were escorted to the room, seats designated them, and they served in advance of their respective protectors. The repast we need only say, it was got up in Tophiff's best style. After due honors were done it, the gentlemen were again conducted to the drawing room, where an hour or two was most pleasantly passed. About half past ten, the teams were called for and the bills paid by the ladies, and the merry turned their faces homewards. The ladies were unremitting in their attention until their "partners" were landed at their own doors, and "good night" interchanged.

On the whole, the excursion was one not only of novelty, but of unalloyed pleasure. The ladies, after once entering upon the enterprise, determined to carry it out fully, and this they did in a manner which reflected credit alike upon their etiquette and good taste. We think we but express the sentiment of all the gentlemen of the party when we say, that it is to be regretted that the privileges which leap year confers have not been more generally exercised.—Watertown Chronicle.

Reminiscence of our Revolution.

The following private letter of General HAMILTON, expressing his sentiments in regard to the sad fate of Major ANDRE, will doubtless be interesting to most of our readers, as it is to ourselves:

Mr. Hamilton to Miss Schuyler.

TAPPAN, OCTOBER 2, 1780.
Head Quarters of the Army.

Poor Andre suffers to-day. Everything that is amiable in virtue, in fortitude, in delicate sentiment and accomplished manners, pleads for him; but hard hearted policy calls for a sacrifice. He must die. I send you my account of Arnold's affair: and to justify myself to your sentiments, I must inform you that I urged a compliance with Andre's request to be shot; and I do not think it would have had an ill effect. But some people are only sensible to motives of policy, and sometimes, from a narrow disposition, mistake it.

When Andre's tale comes to be told, and present resentment is over, the refusing him the privilege of chosing the manner of his death will be branded with too much obstinacy.

It was proposed to me to suggest to him the idea of an exchange for Arnold; but I knew I should have forfeited his esteem by doing it, and therefore declined it. As a man of honor, he could not but reject it; and I would not for the world have proposed to him a thing which must have placed me in the unamiable light of supposing

The American Cough Candy.

WE know of nothing in the annals of medicine which has acquired such a universal reputation, and general a reputation, as the above invaluable Cough Remedy. Testimonials of its wonderful efficacy in curing the most inveterate cold continue to flow in upon us. We are assured that where ever used it is superceding all other remedies of the kind. Grevious to relate, the Nightengale she tested its virtue, probably never would have been known to herself; Goldschmidt. She having taken that melancholy step, from the fear that her voice was gone forever; having experienced only temporary relief from the Remedy last theirs.

Why is the American Cough Candy like a Black Cloud? Because it goes ahead of Storms.
